About This Game

This Stock Trading Simulator is the most comprehensive trading system created.

The ease and flow of the game are so uncomplicated that anyone can play this simulation. The game is highly recommended for the novice trader as well as the more seasoned traders.

This is the nearest to the real thing of trading stocks ever created as a simulation. Buy and sell over 65 different stocks in 10 sectors when you feel fit.

Containing all financial data released throughout the financial monthly calendar. Mirroring the actual economic data released in the real world. Interest Rate change made by the Federal Reserve, Unemployment Rate changes, and the rest of the financial calendar are incorporated for maximum consequence.

Included are special events for individual stocks that fire randomly over time. New products and innovation that cause individual stocks to move are combined in the mix to move stocks. Don't forget the bad stuff. Restructuring and product flops can be part of the fun too.

Events of non economic repercussion are also incorporated. Earthquake, Hurricane, Tornado, and whatever else might have an influence on the stock market are included in this game.

Reserve Bank policy and Government policy have their events and rightful place in the game. When the President speaks the markets listen. All these and more are in play every day in this game.
